Personal Branding Toolkit

Personal branding “to do” list

- Write down 2 to 4 things you are really good at in your job (Think of the things for which you are the “go to” person.)
- Ask colleagues or clients to list 3 things that you do really well.
- Pose a question on social media: “Please list 5 things you’d say about me professionally (strengths, traits, skills, passions, values.)”
- List one thing you can do in the next 14 days to enhance your personal brand (If you want me to send you a reminder, email me at Gretchen@GretchenRoufs.com.)
- Audit your resume, professional bio, social media profiles, cover letters, and any other written material to make sure that what you say about yourself is consistent. Do this audit on a regular basis.

Personal branding benefits¹

1. Grant permission to be yourself
2. Gain confidence
3. Build credibility
4. Showcase your specialty
5. Leave your mark
6. Connect to your target audience
7. Distinguish yourself from the competition
8. Get the support you need
9. Focus your energy
10. Let yourself be lazy (you don’t have to reinvent yourself)

Ways to sink your brand¹

1. Let it go stale/take it for granted
2. Neglect consistency
3. Speak before you think
4. Exhibit bad behavior
5. Be unresponsive
6. Ignore the politics
7. Have an unprofessional online image
8. Not tell the truth
9. Be inauthentic/look like a phony
10. Lose focus
